

THE PROPHECIES OF DANIEL 11

M
A
R
C
H
5

Four Future Kings in the Empire of the Ram
 1. Cambyses: 529 - 522 B.C.
 2. Psuedo-Smerdis: 522 - 521 B.C.
 3. Darius I Hystaspes: 521 - 486 B.C. (Ezra 5)
 4. Xerxes I: 486-465 B.C. The contender against Greece who sowed the seeds of the destruction of the Medo-Persian Empire.

"THE HEATHEN PHILOSOPHER PORPHYRY (3RD CENT. A.D.)... ESTABLISHED THE FACT THAT HISTORY CORRESPONDED CLOSELY TO THE PROPHETIC REVELATION OF DANIEL 11:1-35 AND THE CORRESPONDANCE WAS SO PRECISE THAT HE WAS PERSUADED THAT NO ONE COULD HAVE PROPHESED THESE EVENTS IN THE FUTURE." (John Walvoord, Daniel, the Key to Prophetic Revelation, p. 252)

M
A
R
C
H
3

Four Kings of Persia

A Prophetic History of the Grecian Empire

0 The Final Wars

Seven Weeks

Sixty-two Weeks

One Week

4
4
4
B.
C.

1. The mighty king: Alexander.
2. The division of Greece by Cassander (Macedonia and Greece), Lysimachus (Thrace, Bithynia, Asia Minor), Seleucus (Syria and Babylonia), and Ptolemy (Egypt, Palestine, and Arabia).
3. The conflict between the Ptolemaic dynasty of Egypt and the Selucid dynasty of Syria.

3
3
A.
D.

Kings of the South

Kings of the North

- |  |                                   |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| Ptolemy Soter (323-285 B.C.)           | Seleucus I Nicator (312-281 B.C.) |
| Ptolemy II Philadelphus (285-246 B.C.) | Antiochus I Soter (280-261 B.C.)  |
| Ptolemy III Euergetes (246-221 B.C.)   | Antiochus II Theos (261-246)      |
| Ptolemy IV Philopater (222-205 B.C.)   | Seleucus II Callinicus (246-226)  |
| Ptolemy V Epiphanes (205-182 B.C.)     | Seleucus III Ceraunus (226-223)   |
| Ptolemy VI Philometor (182-168 B.C.)   | Antiochus III Great (223-187)     |
|  | Seleucus IV Philopater (187-175)  |
|  | Antiochus IV Epiphanes (175-164)  |